

Anyone can make a long-term difference to the lives of Queenslanders

Leave a gift in your Will to Queensland Community Foundation

Your gift to Queenslanders

- > Give to the Queensland Community Foundation General Fund

I give:

1. (the whole of my estate/$/specified property) to the Public Trustee of Queensland as trustee of the Queensland Community Foundation (ABN 69 649 199 658) ("Queensland Community Foundation") to be held UPON TRUST for the general charitable purposes of the Queensland Community Foundation.
2. The receipt of the person authorised to receive my gift on behalf of the Queensland Community Foundation shall be a full and sufficient discharge to my Executor and will absolve my Executor from seeing to the application of my gift.

Your wish to benefit a region "Give where you live"

- > Give to an established regional sub-fund (see overleaf for the list of regional sub-funds)
- > Give to a region
- > Establish a sub-fund in your Will

I give:

1. (the whole of my estate/$/specified property) to the Public Trustee of Queensland as trustee of the Queensland Community Foundation (ABN 69 649 199 658) ("Queensland Community Foundation") to be held UPON TRUST for the general charitable purposes of the Queensland Community Foundation.
2. Without creating a binding legal obligation, I express the wish that my gift to the Queensland Community Foundation:
 - a. [Give to an established regional sub-fund] be applied to the account known as [insert name of regional sub-fund] in [specify share if more than one regional sub-fund included] within the trust of the Queensland Community Foundation;
 - b. [insert if including more than one regional sub-fund] be applied to the account known as [insert name of second regional sub-fund] in [specify share] within the trust of the Queensland Community Foundation;
 - c. [Give to a region - replace Part (a) and Part (b) with Part (c) if giving to a geographical area] be applied for the general charitable purposes of the Queensland Community Foundation within the [insert geographical area];
 - d. [Establish a sub-fund in a Will - Part (d) is optional but must be used in conjunction with either Part (a)/ Part (b) or Part(c)] be referred to by the account name of "insert name" [for example, "The Jones Family", the terms 'fund', 'sub-fund' or 'foundation' should not be included in the account name] within the trust of the Queensland Community Foundation.
3. The receipt of the person authorised to receive my gift on behalf of the Queensland Community Foundation shall be a full and sufficient discharge to my Executor and will absolve my Executor from seeing to the application of my gift.

Your wish to benefit a specific cause or charity

- > Give to an established charity based sub-fund (see overleaf for the list)
- > Give to a charity not included in the sub-fund list
- > Establish a sub-fund in your Will

I give:

1. (the whole of my estate/$/specified property) to the Public Trustee of Queensland as trustee of the Queensland Community Foundation (ABN 69 649 199 658) ("Queensland Community Foundation") to be held UPON TRUST for the general charitable purposes of the Queensland Community Foundation.
2. Without creating a binding legal obligation, I express the wish that my gift to the Queensland Community Foundation:
 - a. [Give to an established charity sub-fund] be applied to the account known as [insert name of charity sub-fund] in [specify share if more than one charity sub-fund included] within the trust of the Queensland Community Foundation;
 - b. [insert if including more than one charity sub-fund] be applied to the account known as [insert name of second charity sub-fund] in [specify share] within the trust of the Queensland Community Foundation;
 - c. [Give to a charity - replace Part (a) and Part (b) with Part (c) if giving to a charity not included in the sub-fund list] be applied to [insert name of charity including ABN (eligible charities must have DGR Item 1 status)];
 - d. [Establish a sub-fund in a Will - Part (d) is optional but must be used in conjunction with either Part (a)/Part (b) or Part (c)] be referred to by the account name of "insert name" [for example, "The Jones Family", the terms 'fund', 'sub-fund' or 'foundation' should not be included in the account name] within the trust of the Queensland Community Foundation.
3. If any of the charities named in subclause 2 do not exist when I make this Will; do not exist at the date of my death; or cannot for any reason receive distributions from the Queensland Community Foundation (at the date of my death or any time in the future), then I understand and intend that the Queensland Community Foundation will still receive and hold my gift for its general charitable purposes.
4. The receipt of the person authorised to receive my gift on behalf of the Queensland Community Foundation shall be a full and sufficient discharge to my Executor and will absolve my Executor from seeing to the application of my gift.

Disclaimer:

The information available on or through this website is general in nature and does not constitute, and should not be relied on as, legal advice. Queensland Community Foundation recommends seeking advice from a qualified lawyer on the legal issues affecting you before making any decisions.

Queensland Community Foundation makes no warranty, representation or guarantee regarding the accuracy or suitability for any purpose of, and you should not rely on, any information available on or through this website.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Queensland Community Foundation disclaims all responsibility and all liability (including, without limitation, liability in negligence) for all expenses, losses, damages and costs you or any other person might incur for any reason as a result of reliance upon the information available on or through this website.