Support charities in the North Queensland region.

By donating and or leaving a bequest to QCF for the North Queensland Community Foundation you are helping create a lasting legacy.

With QCF, your generosity can help generations to come. Donations are carefully managed, prudently invested and the income distributed to provide continuing support for local charitable causes.

QCF brings people together who care about their community. The North Queensland Community Foundation is aimed at strengthening the community by facilitating giving and by partnering with donors to build an enduring source of funding from which to support charitable projects.

To find out more about how you can 'give where you live' contact QCF on 07 3360 3854 or email enquiries@qcf.org.au.

All donations are tax-deductible.
